PROGRESSIVES HOLD BANQUET

Hear Able Speakers From Massachusetts and New York--State Politics Mentioned.

The Portsmouth Progressive Club held their first annual banquet on Tuesday evening and it was very much of a success. There were 138 present including ladies and this included members of all parties.

The banquet was held in the banquet hall in Ode Fellows hall and plates were laid for 200, as almost that number of tickets had been sold, but there were only 138 present. Grace was said by Rev. L. L. Galtner, The Union Rebekah Lodge catered and they served a most excellent banquet, and the tables were very attractively set and decorated.

The menu was:

Roast Chicken
Cranberry Sauce Olives Celloery
Cold Ham Mashed Potatoes
Escalloped Oysters Rolls
Chicken Salad Potato Salad
Cabbage Salad
Assorted Pies Cake
Ice Cream Coffee

When coffee was reached Dr. S. F. A. Pickering who presided as toast master called upon Mr. O. L. Priscoe who read letters of regret from Col. Theodore Roosevelt of New York and Col. Winston Churchill who is in California, who both expressed their regret at being unable to attend and wished the club the best of luck.

Mrs. Elliot of Boston and Hon. Sumner Ward the Progressive candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, who were expected to be present, but neither came, the former sending a telegram of regret.

The first speaker was Mr. Matthew Hale of Boston, the chairman of the Progressive party in that state and the Editor of the Boston Journal. He is a good talker and he spoke interestingly on the Massachusetts Progressive policies and the work that is being carried on in that state. He was very confident that the party had come to stay and predicted that it would win out in the next state election in Massachusetts.

Miss Anne Rhode of New York was sent by the National Committee to represent them at the banquet and she spoke mainly on the Progressive League, its aims and its hopes. She is a very eloquent talker and held the closest attention of the large audience. She urged the local progressives to keep together and keep plugging and outlined the work that was being done by the League.

Mr. Arthur D. Hill, former district attorney of Massachusetts was the next speaker. He is chairman of the Massachusetts League and he has been instrumental in drawing up all of the progressive measures which have been introduced in the legislature and he assisted in drawing the platform for the state election. He described the careful manner in which this was done.

The last speaker was William S. Woolcott of Manchester, secretary of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce. He talked for a time on the progressive policies in this state and then

BRILLIANT CHURCH WEDDING THIS MORNING

Miss Mary A. Quinn Becomes the Wife of Andrew J. McMullen.

One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in many days occurred this morning at the church of the Immaculate Conception at 9 o'clock, when Miss Mary Anna Quinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Quinn became the bride of Andrew James McMullen. Long before the appointed hour of the ceremony the church was crowded with friends of the contracting parties. Two hundred church invitations were issued. Rev. Edward J. Walsh, P. R., performed the ceremony which was followed by nuptial high mass. The musical program during the service rendered by the senior choir, under the direction of choir master, W. P. Lavin was the following:

Wedding March ..... Mendelssohn
Kyrie ..... Millard
O-Salutaris—Trio, Soprano, Tenor and Bass ..... Liscomb
Sanctus—Male Quartet ..... Eupens
Benedictus—Tenor Solo and Chorus ..... Gounod
Agnus Dei—Bass Soprano and Alto ..... Gloraz
Wedding March ..... Lohengrin

The bride was the cynosure of all eyes in her pretty dress of white satin on train with chiffon drapings, edged with silk fringe. Yoke of white net, collar piped with baby Irish lace, bertha of real battenberg lace piped, with silver bead trimmings, and girle of satin with silver bead ornament.

She wore a tulle veil in Dutch cap, and Irish point lace caught with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white Killarney roses and maiden hair fern tied with white satin ribbon.

The bridesmaid was Miss Margaret R. Quinn, her sister, who wore a hand some gown of blue silk crepe de chene with silver fringe trimmings, white embroidered lines, hat trimmed with blue satin ribbon and tiny yellow rose buds.

The groom was attended by Dr. John F. O'Brien of Taunton, Mass.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the bride's home on Parrott Avenue where there was an outpouring of congratulations and a reception held. The menu consisted of lobster and chicken salads, Parker house rolls, olives, celery, cold ham, assorted cake and coffee. The home was beautifully decorated with potted plants, ferns and palms.

Thomas J. Quinn, James W. Scott, Henry M. Flynn and Dennis J. Long, acted as ushers at the church and assisted the guests at the reception.

Conspicuous among the numerous and beautiful gifts received were silver and cut glass from the children of the bride's school, a handsome landscape painting from the teaching corps of the kindergarten, Cubot street and Whipple schools, an silver service and tray of silver from the officers at the navy yard.

The groom presented the best man with a set of gold cuff links and the gift from the bride to the bridesmaid was a gold pendant with chain. The ushers gifts from the groom was gold scarf pins in settings of emerald, amethyst and pearls. Mr. and Mrs. McMullen departed on the afternoon train for New York and on their return will reside in a newly furnished home on Middle road. The bride's traveling gown was tailor made navy blue serge and blue chiffon waist, black picture hat of hemp straw faced with black velvet, and trimmed with white ostrich plumes and white satin ribbon.

The bride is a graduate of Portsmouth High school, class of 1905, and the Portsmouth Training School in 1907. She has for the past four years filled the position as teacher in the fourth grade of the Whipple school, where she was loved by every scholar who came under her careful training. She has also been a faithful worker in the soprano section of the choir of the church of the Immaculate Conception for nearly ten years. Her pleasant disposition, and lovable traits of character has endeared her to a host of friends in her nativity.

The groom is a most popular young man of sterling qualities and like his bride enjoys the friendship of a wide circle of acquaintances. He holds the responsible position of pay clerk in the navy, and is at present attached to the department of supplies and accounts at the navy yard. The many friends of both join in extending hearty congratulations, hoping that the unclouded sunshine of matrimonial bliss will shine over their future

HOT FIGHT FOR COLLECTORSHIP

Edgar J. Knowlton, a Well Known Manchester Newspaper Man, Said to be in the Lead

A Washington dispatch says there is a hot fight for the position of collector of internal revenue for the district of Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont. The principal candidates in the field are Edgar J. Knowlton of Manchester, N. H.; Cyrus W. Davis of Littleton, N. H.; and Charles A. Morse of Newmarket, N. H.; Joseph W. Schurman of Greenland, and Dr. Samuel T. Ladd of this city.

So far Knowlton seems to be a bit in the lead, although it is too early at this time to make any predictions as to the outcome. Mr. Knowlton has filed about 200 indorsements, with the treasury department and his friends are busy importing Secretary McAdoo. The members of the New life and that their joys will be as numerous as the petals of the bride's bouquet.

This out of town guests were: Dr. John E. O'Brien, Taunton; Mrs. Mary Mulhoney, James Carroll, Miss May Sullivan, Fall River; Miss Nellie Caffrey, Somerville; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sullivan, Miss Alice Sullivan, Joseph Sullivan Jr., Dorchester; Miss Mary Hurley, Timothy Hurley, Manchester; Miss Bessie Campbell, Charlestown; Paymaster and Mrs. John H. Jordan, navy yard; Miss Annie Knight, Kittery; Miss Pannie Chapman, Greenland; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Curran, Weymouth, Mass.

DEPUTIES TO BE RETAINED Not Affected by Customs Reorganization.

Washington, April 22.—Deputy collectors of customs now second in command at all ports of the United States probably will retain their positions under the democratic administration and have direct charge of the customs offices when the customs reorganization plan becomes effective July 1, according to officials today.

Deputy collectors are now in the classified civil service, and as the inception of the treasury department to leave them unchanged except for increases in the salaries of a few whose duties will be increased by the reorganization. The collectors of customs who will supervise, under the new plan, the work of the deputies in their respective customs districts are not protected by the civil service.

DEATH OF OLD BOSTON & MAINE RAILROAD MAN

Jacob D. Mudgett Had Been on Road 50 Years.

Jacob D. Mudgett, one of the oldest conductors of the Boston & Maine railroad, who had been in active service with the road for almost fifty years, died at his home 431 Summer street, Lynn, yesterday, aged 84, after an illness of about a year.

He had been on routes over practically every mile of the Boston & Maine system, and was known in Maine, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts by patrons of the road. He was always popular with the passengers.

Mr. Mudgett was born in Parsonfield, Me., and at the age of 15 drove a six horse mail coach between his home and Portsmouth, N. H. He has been a resident of Lynn for more than sixty years, and when the Old Eastern railroad was organized, he became a baggage master.

He was a member of Freedom lodge of Masons of Freedom, Me., and of the Railway Conductors' Association. He is survived by four children, Charles W., John H., Mrs. Zephira Ricker of Lynn, and Miss Louise S. Mudgett of Lynn.

MONAHAN WAS THERE

In the recent account of the tug of war contest between the Keystone team of this city and a Boston team at Boston, the name of one of the local men, Dennis Monahan, was unintentionally omitted in the item. Mr. Monahan was in the pull at Boston and is recognized as one of the best men in this city in this line of sport.

R & G Rustless Corsets

R & G followed the abrupt lines of the crinoline lady of the sixties. It filled the need of the bustle of the eighties. It answers the simple call of the sinuous, graceful lines of today. The R & G artists have designed so many corsets for so many women that no trick of line, or seam or boning escapes them. Over this corset shown here the gowns and suits of the spring will be at home, for the corset was built for the new fashion lines.

DRYDEN DEFEATED TURKISH WRESTLER

Another defeat for Turkey, and right here in Portsmouth, for her light heavy weight champion Yousuf went down to defeat before Bill Dryden, the best wrestler of his weight in the country.

The Turk died hard, for he is a powerful fellow, perfectly good natured, but lacking the science of modern wrestling possessed by Dryden. He is slow moving on the offense, but when on the defense he showed remarkable burst of speed and in spots both men went at as fast speed as could be desired.

Dryden, owing to the great strength of the Turk, was unable to make headway at first, and was on the defense the greater part of the time. Several times the Turk had him in a corner, but Bill wheeled out, but only after a struggle. As the Turk weakened Bill took the defense and kept him moving fast, and after he had slipped or rather fore himself out of several bad positions he remembered to a crotch arm bar and a half Nelson. He held a bridge for a few minutes but he finally broke down. The first fall was in 41 minutes 51 seconds.

The Turk does not understand the fish and he became somewhat confused about the off the mat rule and Joe Chase who did a very good job as referee was kept busy breaking the men.

The second fall came after 23 minutes 50 seconds of work, in which Dryden was the aggressive and while the Turk at times showed signs of coming back, Dryden was never in any great danger. A half Nelson and a full body finally pinned the Turk's shoulders to the mat.

Following the match Dryden announced that as the season was getting late he would have but one more match, possibly May 5, but who he would take on would be announced later. Harry of Claremont who challenged through this paper to throw Dryden twice in an hour will be given a chance if he will post a forfeit that he can do the job.

WANTS TO WRESTLE DRYDEN

Jim Poulous on The War Path and Willing to Bet All Kinds of Money.

Jim Poulous the Greek middle weight wrestler, who has been winning a great many matches, through the west, arrived here on Tuesday with the avowed intention of getting Dryden's wrestling scalp.

At the match last evening he issued a challenge to wrestle Dryden for any size purse or winner take all the gate receipts, and he followed that up by appearing at the Chronicle office with another challenge.

Poulous says that he will wrestle Dryden for any size stake but from $100 to $500 and will post the money with the Sporting Editor at any time it is asked for. If Dryden don't want to wrestle for a stake but he will wrestle the winner take all, in fact anything for a match.

Poulous was defeated here by Dryden last year, but since that time he has been in the west, and claims to have defeated all of the middle weight including Joe Turner. He is chuck full of confidence that he can throw Dryden. Poulous weighs 160 pounds.

Are Manager Frank Chance's Playing Days at First Over?

New York, April 23.—Are Manager Frank Chance's playing days over? This question is now bothering the local American league baseball fans in this city. Chance began the season at first base for the Yankees, but was forced to lay off on account of a pulled tendon in his leg. Club officials say he will be back in the lineup in a week's time, but will he? It is said on good authority that his underpinning is very weak and that a few weeks' hard playing at the initial station will be about all he can stand and he will be forced to manage the team from the bench from then on. With out Chance the Yankees will be very weak, as he steadies the infield in good shape.

branched to the question of the new cross state road from Keene to Portsmouth, via Nashua and Manchester and he was very enthusiastically about this measure and urged everybody to get busy. He pictured the great benefit such a road would be to Manchester and Portsmouth and thought that it was one of the best things that had been proposed.

Following the speaking a vote of thanks was extended to the speakers. An orchestra furnished music during the short reception held and during the banquet, and Master Oliver Pringle sang a solo.

The Union Rebekah Lodge which entered had a supper committee consisting of Mrs. J. S. Leavitt chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lindberg, Mrs. J. M. Verrill, Mrs. Carrie Adams, Mrs. William Drew, Mrs. Young, and Mr. and Mrs. Mable.

The secretary read the following letter:

"I earnestly wish I could be with you on April 22 to greet the progressives of Portsmouth. As this is impossible, I send you a letter of good will.

"The progressive party stands today precisely where the republican party stood in the days of Lincoln, when it was the progressive party of the nation. It is idle to talk of our amalgamating with either of the old party machines as it would have been to talk of Lincoln's republicans amalgamating with either the Bourbon democrats or Cotton Whigs of their day. We stand absolutely for our platform; we believe in applying the principles of that platform to party management as well as to the government. There is no place in our ranks for the boss; for the man who represents the alliance between the privilege in business and privilege in politics.

"I firmly believe that there are literally millions of progressives among the rank and file both of the republican and democratic parties; that these men will sooner or later realize that they can do nothing where they are, and the only way they can efficiently fight for the social and industrial justice, for political and economic freedom, for equality of opportunity, is to join the progressive party. They shall have exact equality of treatment with us without regard to whether they are ex-democrats or ex-republicans. We welcome all honest citizens in our ranks.

"With hearty good wishes, I am

"Faithfully yours,

"T. ROOSEVELT."

The following was also read by Mr. Frisbee:

"San Francisco, Cal., April 14. "Please give on the occasion of your dinner, my heartiest greeting to the Portsmouth progressives, in which Governor Johnson joins me. The progressive ginger in California is no stronger than it is in Portsmouth, and the California progressives have given us the same warm hearted hospitality which we should give them in New Hampshire if they came to visit us.

"I am more than ever convinced that we have a nation wide party, founded on principles which are so sound and righteous that they must be incorporated into government; a party of men and women whose spirit is so high, and whose courage and patriotism is so strong, that we shall not falter until we carry these principles on to ultimate victory.

"Here in California I have been intensely struck by the wisdom of recognizing the great power for good possessed by women. And I am sure that they will ever convince the women of every land and straighten the crooked paths by which they are at present being upheld more staunchly by the women of the world in the battle for a better and winning against the corporations and corrupt and subsidized press.

"One reason I came to California was because I had to have a quiet place in which to write, in order that I might, in 1914, have finished my book and be free for a few months to engage, as a private in the ranks, in the New Hampshire campaign. But I am sure it will give the Portsmouth progressives pleasure to know that in addition to a dinner given me in a New Hampshire progressive, by the progressives of Los Angeles, another dinner was given me last Saturday night by one thousand San Francisco progressives to which the governor, the speaker of the house and many members of the legislature came down on a special train.

"I told them I wish the real leader of our party in New Hampshire, Governor Baer, and many other New Hampshire progressives, could have been with us on such occasions. I go tonight to Sacramento to visit Governor Johnson and address the legislature and, especially, to learn all I can.

"I expect to be home toward the last of the summer. With kindest regards to you and to everyone of my friends in Portsmouth, I am,

"Sincerely yours,

"WINSTON CHURCHILL."

After the reading of these letters, the progressives rose and gave three cheers for our next president and vice president, Col. Theodore Roosevelt and Winston Churchill.

The following was also read by Mr. Frisbee:

"San Francisco, Cal., April 14. "Please give on the occasion of your dinner, my heartiest greeting to the Portsmouth progressives, in which Governor Johnson joins me. The progressive ginger in California is no stronger than it is in Portsmouth, and

Past Chancellors' Night Fittingly Observed By Members of Damon Lodge, K. of P.

The annual roll call and Past Chancellor's Night of Damon Lodge, No. 9, Knights of Pythias, was held at Pythian hall on Tuesday evening and the affair was largely attended, many of the older members of the order being present, including three of the four surviving charter members, Edward T. Morrison, Hiram B. Lord, and Horace Mudge. A letter of regret was read from the fourth Benjamin Plummer of Sharon, Mass.

following past officers:

Past Chancellor, Edward T. Morrison; Chancellor Commander, Chauncey B. Hoyt; Vice Chancellor, Gustave Peysier; Prelate Fred C. Harner; Keeper of Records and Seals, G. H. Sanderson; Master of Finance, Frank W. Knight; Master of Exchequer, Fred W. Emery; Master of Work, Andrew P. Wendell; Master at Arms, Frederick W. Harrington; Inner Guard, Amon O. Benfield; Outer Guard, Lewis B. Pendleton. At the roll call of names upwards of one hundred members responded to their names and letters of regret were read from about twenty-five more members including Mayor Daniel W. Badger, ex-Mayor John J. Laskey, Col. John H. Bartlett, Richard S. Weston and others.

Following the roll call Chancellor Commander Hoyt called upon the three charter members present, and each spoke interestingly of the events attending the formation of the lodge forty-two years ago. Other speakers were Gustave Peysier, ex-Mayor William O. Jenkins, John Pender, Chancellor Commander Heiser. Following the speakers some of the degree work was illustrated by Bros. Horner, Benfield and MacDonald. A lunch consisting of sandwiches, potato salad, ice cream, assorted cake, coffee and cigars was served.

The affair was one of the pleasantest in the history of the lodge and a social hour was passed in the interchange of greetings before the assemblage broke up and the party repaired to their homes.

The committee in charge was as follows:

G. H. Sanderson, F. W. Knight, A. P. Wendell, F. C. Horner, John S. Carll, P. H. Heiser, L. E. Pendleton, A. C. Cox, C. B. Hoyt, F. W. Harrington, P. B. Hodgdon, G. A. MacDonald, A. G. Benfield, S. Somerville, H. H. Foote.

RAILROAD BILL PASSES HOUSE

Congressman Stevens Resigns From Legislature--Other Business.

Concord, April 22.—The railroad rates bill, one of the most important to come before the house this session, was reported and introduced by Mr. Stevens of Landaff this morning, and passed without opposition, under a suspension of the rules. The bill provides methods of adjusting maximum rates on steam railroads, in a new draft. The bill was after considerable discussion, referred back to the railroad committee last week.

The new draft provides that upon filing a statement, duly executed, with the public service commission, on or before July 1, 1913, the roads shall have authority to collect the rates now in force until Oct. 1, 1914, and that the rates shall not be raised before that date without the consent of the public service commission.

The bill further provides that the expenses incurred by the public service commission in connection with investigations concerning the roads shall be paid by them.

Speaker Britton capped the house to order at 10:30 o'clock. The senate came in for prayer by Chaplain Welch. Leave of absence was granted Messrs Perkins of Maylow, Savage of Lancaster, Clark of Hancock, Lamb of Manchester, Gleason of Bethlehem, Brewster of Portsmouth, Torsey of New Hampton, Phaneuf of Nashua, Heath of Stewartstown, Lessard of Nashua Phelps of Manchester.

Explanations by Mr. Couch.

Mr. Couch of Concord said that the new draft of the railroad rate bill was the result of the conference work of the committee, and it was important that it be sent to the senate as soon as possible in order that it might be passed and signed by the governor, and become a law; that the public service commission may begin its work and moved that the bill be read a second time by its title and passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Stevens of Landaff made a statement explaining the bill saying the original bill carried two reports, the majority prohibiting the public commission from raising rates; the minority permitting them to do so, if they thought necessary or advisable. The committee had followed the substance of the instructions of the house. The new bill provided that the public service commission had the authority to fix a new schedule of rates to take effect on Oct. 1, 1914, and submit them to the railroads, which would have that time to decide whether they will accept them or retain the present rates. Mr. Stevens then seconded the motion of Mr. Couch and the bill was passed.

Mr. Hobbs of Wolfeboro said that the idea of lumping on the railroads was all wrong. He believed in equal justice for all.

A petition numerously signed protested against the reconsideration of the vote against amending the Preston amendment to the liquor laws.

A Suspension of the Rules.

The joint appropriation for the placing of lights on the steamboat channel on Lake Winnepesaukee was passed under a suspension of the rules.

A resolution for an appropriation for improvements to the state house was reported as inexpedient, as was the resolution carrying an appropriation for a memorial on the Gettysburg battlefield.

A bill providing for an increase in the salaries of the public service commission to $2700 for the chairman and $1500 for the remaining members was passed under on motion of Mr.

Couch of Concord, in spite of opposition of Mr. Eastman of Weare, who thought the pay was too much.

The senate bill to provide for lights on vehicles was opposed by Mr. Eastman of Weare, who said that a man on a dark night would probably forget his lantern at least half of the time, and would be obliged to pay a fine for his lapse of memory, and that anyway a man could see better without a light than he could with one, and he hoped the bill would get the ax.

Mr. Larkin of Unity thought the bill was gotten up by the automobile owners.

Mr. Davis of Keene moved that the bill be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Brennan of Peterborough was not very much in favor of an idea of indefinite postponements. He believed the bill was a good one and should pass. The law would not entail any great expense, as an ordinary lantern would be sufficient.

Mr. Davis of New Ipswich said that he opposed to the bill came through a misunderstanding of its provisions and utility; that the expense would be small. Mr. Davis' motion to indefinitely postpone was lost on a division of the house, after Mr. Couch of Concord had given a history of the bill, which he said had been passed by both house and senate, but vetoed by the governor because of one objectionable feature. The new bill eliminated this and he believed that the house would make a mistake if it neglected to pass the bill.

The bill was then, on motion of Mr. Couch, read a third time by its title and passed under a suspension of the rules. The bill takes effect July 1, 1914.

Speaker Britton announced there would be no session of the House on Thursday, (Past Day) as it would be a courtesy to Governor Parker, who had designated that day.

Representative Raymond B. Stevens of Landaff tendered his resignation as a member of the house. On motion of Mr. Ahern of Concord, the house expressed its regret at the withdrawal from its deliberations by a rising vote.

The bill relating to protection from forest fires, which provides that the "slash" shall be cleared for fifty feet on each side of the right of way, was passed under a suspension of the rules.

The first special order, the bill establishing the minimum wage commission and providing for the determination of a minimum wage scale for women and minors, and which came from the committee on appropriations with the recommendation inexpedient to legislate, was championed by Mr. Callahan of Keene, who claimed that there were thousands of women and minors who were working for $3 per week, and that under the reduction in the tariff provided under a Democratic administration would perhaps be obliged to work for a smaller sum unless the minimum wage be fixed by law. Mr. Callahan said that one of the greatest helps to white slavery was the low wage scale.

The report of the committee of inexpedient to legislate was adopted on a roll-call following a division.

Still Work for a Tariff Board.

The republican members of the house of representatives are doing an important service in keeping alive the idea of scientific tariff revision, conducted on the advice of an expert non-partisan board. That is the sort of revision which does the maximum of good and the minimum of harm. It keeps the tariff as far as possible out of party politics and brings about gradual changes which benefit the great majority without harshly sacrificing the interests of various small minorities. The democratic party has preferred to reduce duties in the old way, chiefly because it wanted them reduced quickly. It has declared against scientific and in favor of partisan and rough and tumble revision. It is doing only what is said it would do, and the country cannot logically complain, since it is only getting what it bargained for when it put power back in the democracy's hands. Nevertheless, the experiences of the revision of 1913 will probably strengthen the idea that purely political making is a mistake. However faithfully the democratic party may carry out its promises, it will necessarily commit many errors and do many injustices. Such things go along with any revision made on a strictly partisan basis. Tariffs are short lived, and when the time comes to revise the schedules now being made it will be of great advantage all around to have the assistance of a permanent expert non-partisan tariff board. The republicans are wise in sticking to that rock-bottom principle. They will find it more popular about Washington after the new tariff goes into effect than it apparently is now.—New York Tribune.

The Tragedy in Free Wool.

Democratic representatives from the country districts of Ohio which sent minority party candidates to Washington last fall because of the rupture between the republicans and the progressives are in a sad state of mind over free wool. They see their own retirement in their party's tariff program. Some of them say that on no account will they vote for a bill which makes free wool one of its features. Others who do not go quite so far urge their fellow democrats to look facts in the face and not shut their eyes to the certainty that if the tariff is taken off wool it will empty most of the seats now filled by democrats from Ohio. They heg that the Underwood bill may be so amended that they can have a fighting chance for their political lives. There will be much more of this talk before the pending measure gets through either the house or the senate. Many democrats know that they owe their places to a lucky combination of circumstances which they cannot count upon in any future campaign. They realize their precarious situation and they have no desire to make it hopeless. Party principles are all very well, they hold, but not party suicide for faithful party office-holders. Yet there is no other way to get results along the lines laid down by the president. Many must sacrifice their personal ambitions if his promises to the country are to be fulfilled. The course he has mapped out may be tragic but is it not possible to make it look heroic, also?—Cleveland Leader.

New Hampshire Forests.

The Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests deserves success in its efforts to secure an endowment fund to carry on the work it has so well begun. The announcement this week of a still further purchase of White Mountain land by the National Forest Reserve commission shows the direct and practical results of the propaganda that the society has carried on against great odds. About 90,000 acres of New Hampshire mountain region are now under the protection of the national government, thanks to the Weeks bill, but that is only a part of the task the society has set out to do. It has secured the passage of the Crawford Notch bill, by which the state of New Hampshire purchased 6000 acres that was threatened with devastation; it has secured legislation providing for forest fire wardens, and the society employs a trained forester of its own through whom much local work is accomplished. In its ten years of existence the society has spent $65,000 to protect the mountain slopes of the beautiful region where all the rivers of New England, except the Penobscot, have their origin. With more funds, or with assured funds, the society could much better work in behalf of the cause that is of direct concern not only to all lovers of nature but to all of industrial New England.—Boston Herald.

New Hampshire Women Who Want to Vote.

It will have to be said to the credit of New Hampshire women who are fighting for the privilege of voting that they conduct their campaign for votes along rational lines, unlike their English sisters, who seem to have obtained an idea that throwing bricks through store windows and committing damage to property in various unlawful ways are strong arguments in favor of votes for women. In this connection it is worthy of note that Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst, the leader of the ## Venerable Catholic Prelate, Who Passed Seventy-first Milestone.

The venerable Cardinal Parley, archbishop of the New York diocese of the Roman Catholic church, celebrated recently the seventy-first anniversary of his birth. Owing to the critical illness of Pope Pius X, no demonstration or ostentation attended the event. Cardinal Parley spent part of the day at work. In the forenoon he dedicated the Church of Our Lady of Hope, a church especially dedicated for the worship of Spanish people in New York city. He spent the afternoon principally at St. Patrick's cathedral, praying for the recovery of the pope. Cardinal Parley got his red hat in 1911 at the same time that Archbishop O'Connell of Boston was made a prince of the church. Their elevation increased the number of American cardinals to four, strictly speaking. The other two are the venerable Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore and Cardinal Falconio, who, although born in Italy, was ordained in the United States and is a naturalized citizen of this country. Cardinal Falconio now resides at Rome, however, and hence is not popularly considered an American cardinal.

DWYER—MAC ISAAC.

Portsmouth People Attend Wedding at Elizabeth, N. J.

Miss Beulah Jane MacIsaac, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncun MacIsaac, of 171 Seymour avenue, Elizabeth, N. J., and William Charles Dwyer, Jr., were married last Wednesday evening in the Catholic Church of the Blessed Sacrament by the Rev. Frederick O'Neil. The party was led to the altar by the choir boys of the church, and Frank MacIsaac played the wedding music. The ushers were Kenneth L. MacIsaac, the bride's brother, and Arthur A. Eckert and Thomas J. Hall. Miss Dwyer was best man. Miss Helen Edly Baker, of Providence, R. I., and Miss Mary Taylor, of Boston. The church was decorated with palms and smilax, blue and pink and white carnations. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore white beaded ermine de chine, trimmed with pearl beads, and a canopy of blue, with the customary veil and blossoms, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Dwyer was in white lace and carried over pink nosegays, and the maids wore pink chamoise with shadow lace. All wore white hats trimmed with pink roses and carried pink roses. Mrs. MacIsaac wore lavender chamoise draped with black Venice lace and a steel gray hat with lavender and black plumes. Among guests, Mrs. Cecilia Palmer of Providence, R. I., wore cream tulle trimmed with black lace; Mrs. Allen Huntington, white chamoise; Mrs. Walter E. Lyndy, of Portsmouth, lavender chiffon broadcloth with macramé lace trimming; Miss Elizabeth O'Brien, light blue crepe de chine, with bouillon lace, all with hats in the mode; Mrs. W. C. Dwyer, the groom's mother, was in steel gray chamoise with tulle of gray chiffon with touches of pink chiffon and a hat of cream satin trimmed with black velvet and pink roses. A reception was held in the bride's home. Among others present were Allen Huntington, E. A. Brown, W. E. Lyndy, W. C. Dwyer, Mr. and Mrs. James Nickel, the Rev. Frederick O'Neil, Father Fitzpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. C. Shavin, the Misses Butts, McManus and Gretia Shavin; Raymond and Walter Dwyer, John Joyce, Mrs. W. Jamison and son, John Dwyer, the latter of Jersey City. The house was decorated in pink and white, with palms and smilax. Mrs. Huntington poured and Miss O'Brien served salads. The couple left on a trip South. They will be at home after May 15 at 125 Seymour avenue. The bride gave the maids sapphire and pearl pendants, and the groom gave his bridesmaids sapphires. He gave the bride a diamond and pearl pendant.

OPEN ON MONDAY

The three Centuries of the W. H. McIlwain Co., at Manchester, which are now closed, will, it is understood, resume operations Monday. Curfew will amount to only 4 1/2 days, Thursday being a holiday in New Hampshire and Saturday a half holiday.

Seasonal business is given as the cause of the shut-down. All other factories of the McIlwain Co., with exception of half a factory which is run in two sections at Nashua are operating.

OPEN GOLF SEASON FAST DAY

The Country Club golf season will open tomorrow, Fast Day, with a handicap sweepstake. "Play will be after 1 o'clock and it will be open to all members of the club. The handicaps of last year will govern, unless otherwise corrected by the committee. The golf course is in the best shape in its history for this time of the year. In fact, months ahead of last year, and a good sized entry is looked for.

VISITS WASHINGTON FOR COLLECTORSHIP

Cyrus Davis, Former Maine Secretary of State, After Portsmouth Federal Office.

Washington, April 22.—Cyrus Davis of Waterville, former secretary of state for Maine, is in Washington, and the fight for the collectorship of internal revenue for Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont is on in earnest. Mr. Davis has the endorsement of Senator Charles P. Johnson and Representative D. J. McGillicuddy. Up to a few days ago, at least until New Hampshire elected a democratic senator, it was supposed that Mr. Davis had the call.

New Senator Hollis is taking a hand. There are three New Hampshire candidates, Henry H. Metcalf of Concord; Dr. Charles A. Morse of Newmarket, and E. J. Knowlton of Manchester. These three are democrats of distinction in the Granite State, and they want that job, with an office at Portsmouth, where the salary is $4000 in less years and is likely to be very much more, perhaps as much as $5000 or $6000 with an income tax law just coming on to the statute books.

Senator Hollis is credited with favoring the candidacy of Editor Metcalf, and if a New Hampshire man gets it, he will probably be Metcalf. But the New Hampshire delegation is divided in their endorsement. This is expected to favor the Maine candidate.

Methodism came to Portsmouth in 1730 by the preaching of Reverend Jesse Lee. The society was organized April 27, 1808, by Reverend George Pickering, with a membership numbering fifty-two. The society met in the Hutchings house on Washington street, until later in the year the same was purchased on Vaughan street was purchased for $2,000. In 1827 a new church was built on State street at a cost of $4,413. This church was dedicated January 1, 1828. The following year, June, 1829, the New England Annual Conference met here, and the New Hampshire Annual Conference was formed. Subsequent annual conferences have been held here as follows: July 9, 1835, July 10, 1844, and May 1, 1859.

This church was sold September 1, 1912. The new church erected on Miller avenue, and but now completed, was begun July 1, 1912; the corner stone, which is the same used in the State street church in 1827, was laid by the ritual of the church, September 8, 1912. The lot cost $3000 and the erection of the building upwards of $24,000.

NOTED STARS WILL APPEAR.

Noted stars of the Boston Opera company will present in concert form sixth scenery and costume, a fifty minute version of "The Barber of Seville," and also a select concert program. Thursday evening, May 1, at the Portsmouth theatre. "The Barber" is one of the great favorites of operatic repertoire, and the company of stars who will sing the roles have, with but one or two exceptions, been assigned to the same parts as at the Boston Opera House. The world's most famous "Figaro" or barber, is M. Rodolfo Cornali, the baritone, whose interpretation of the humorous character is so excellent that he is sought for the part by many of the largest European opera houses, who arrange to present this opera during his summer vacation from America, so that he can play the part in his immitable way. No matter what ails your child, a gentle thorough laxative physic should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally, it is a sure sign that its little bowels, liver and 20 feet of bowels are filled with foul, constipated waste matter, and need a gentle, thorough, cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, or your little one has stomach ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile, will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, gripping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious fig taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver, and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious, tasteful, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

The tide now ebbs and flows in the English schooner Revolution, beached on the shore near the Spruce Creek bridge. It is reported that the vessel is so badly damaged that she will be condemned. A considerable amount of new furniture which she was taking from Nova Scotia has been removed from her hold.

The three masted schooner Helena of New York, which left here on Sunday afternoon with a cargo of coal for Swan's Island, Me., struck on Old Woman ledge, off Port Clyde, Me., on Monday and will be a total loss. As practically no sailing vessels are now being built, their number is fast decreasing yearly, and the only consolation is that with coal and lumber, freight higher than for years, the survivors of the fleet are likely to pay their owners well. At the present time it is impossible to find enough comparatively small vessels to fill orders.

Mr. George B. Unswell in the guest of friends in Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. Jennie Ferguson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones of Rye Beach, has returned to her home in Lowell, Mass.

Several of the summer residents of this town opened their cottages over the holidays.

The Hoff family will not occupy their cottage this summer as usual owing solely to the recent death of Mr. Hoff. Mrs. Hoff and her daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Doris, will spend a part of the coming season with Mr. and Mrs. George Hoff. The "Queen Anne" cottage will be leased.

Miss Jennie C. Drake, who has been the guest of Baymaster and Mrs. Manning H. Philbrick of Philadelphia, Pa., for several weeks, has returned home.

Mr. Scott Smith of Washington, D. C., who is visiting his daughter, Mrs. George D. Macey of Portsmouth, was in town today renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Smith will open his house for occupancy next week and intends to have repairs and remodeling done, before the rest of his family arrive.

The ensuing interesting program has been prepared for the Grange meeting to be held on Friday evening:

OLD HOME WEEK ASSOCIATION ELECT OFFICERS

Former Governor Frank W. Rollins presided at the annual meeting of the New Hampshire Old Home Week Association, which was held in the office of the secretary of agriculture, Concord, Tuesday morning. Officers were elected as follows:

President, former Governor Frank W. Rollins.
Vice Presidents, Governor Samuel C. Parker of Rochester, H. B. Metcalf of Concord, True L. Norris of Portsmouth, the Hon. Chester B. Jordan of Lancaster, Andrew L. Folger of Merrimack, Col. Geo. B. Leighton of Dublin, J. D. Roberts of Rollinsford, C. B. Hoyt of Sandwich and C. C. Smith of Ashland.

Secretary, former Governor Nahum J. Bachelder.
Treasurer, A. J. Dudley of Concord.

There were addresses by the Hon. Hiram W. Parker of Concord, the Hon. Herbert D. Hadley of Peterborough, chairman of the state board of agriculture, the Hon. Richard Patten, master of the New Hampshire State Grange, Henry B. Metcalf of Concord and John D. Porter of Plainfield and others.

The meeting was one of the most largely attended since the organization of the association.

DELEGATES TO THE PEACE CONFERENCE

St. Louis, April 22.—The Mayor of Portsmouth, N. H., has been invited to appoint five delegates from that city to the Fourth American Peace Conference, which will meet at St. Louis May 1, 2, and 3, with representatives of at least nineteen nations of the Western Hemisphere participating.

Those nations of this hemisphere, delegates from which have been either definitely named or promised in official correspondence, are the United States, Canada, Mexico, Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Uruguay and Venezuela.

The American Peace society has complied, for presentation at the St.

Louis peace meeting, figures showing that the world spends annually for war and war equipment two billion dollars, enough to more than pay for any Panama canal—and that the adoption, by international agreement, of the arbitration method of settling international disputes would, with the consequent reduction of armaments, make many millions annually, in the United States alone, needed for military purposes under the present system, to be applied to agricultural, scientific, industrial and other improvements for the benefit of mankind.

President Woodrow Wilson, honorary president of the Fourth American Peace Conference, is expected to head the official delegation from Washington, and deliver an address. William Jennings Bryan, Secretary of State and one of the active vice presidents of the conference, has indicated his intention to attend and speak. Andrew Carnegie, another vice president, who has $11,000,000 to establish an endowment fund for international peace, has accepted an invitation to attend and deliver an address and will be accompanied by Mrs. Carnegie, in whose honor a reception is being planned by the reception committee of women, of which Mrs. W. B. Planchet of St. Louis, is chairman. Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice president of the United States, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address and also to preside at one of the sessions. Many other notables are on the program.

The peace congress will be opened in with the dedication, April 20, of the Jefferson Memorial, a $500,000 monument commemorating the Louisiana Purchase, the world's greatest peaceable acquisition of territory. The formal opening, the next day, of the peace congress will be followed with the western group oratorical contest of the Intercollegiate Peace society, for a prize of $100, the winners of state contests in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, South Dakota and Texas competing.

Members of the American and Canadian committees of arrangements for the celebration in 1914-15 of one hundred years of peace between English-speaking peoples have accepted invitations to attend the congress and discuss the approaching Anglo-American century and explain the purposes that lie behind it.

At the night session of May 1, the peace congress will take up the present international problems of the United States, including the Panama canal, and its tolls and fortifications, the Philippines, and Mexico. The presence of an official delegation from the Mexican government is expected to render the discussion of the Mexican situation especially interesting.

The principal social event of the peace congress will be an elaborate garden party the afternoon of May 2, at the Missouri Botanical Garden (popularly called "Shaw's Garden"), the most complete botanical park in America and one of the largest such parks in the world. There will be music, refreshments and other features. The garden party will be preceded by an automobile tour of the city for the out-of-town delegates and their families. Hundreds of automobiles are being loaned for this procession by St. Louisans interested in the peace movement. Large committees of well-known men and women have been appointed to look after the comfort of the visitors throughout their stay in the city.

Former President William H. Taft and United States Senator Elihu Root are the honorary vice presidents of the Fourth American Peace Conference, and Congressman Richard Bartholdt is the active president, while the active vice presidents, besides Mr. Bryan and Mr. Carnegie, are Theodore E. Burton, United States senator from Ohio, Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives, John W. Griggs, former United States Attorney-General and Oscar Straus, former American Ambassador to Turkey.

LARGEST SHIP IS FLOATED

Imperator Went Aground in the Elbe River While Proceeding Out on Her Official Trial Trip.

Hamburg, April 22.—The new Hamburg-American Line Steamship, Imperator, 300 feet long, ran aground in the Elbe this morning. She was proceeding from the Vulkan Ship Building yards for the lower Elbe to make ready for her official trial trip, when she grounded off Altona. She was floated this evening and proceeded on her voyage out to sea.

The Imperator started at the highest stage of the morning tide, as it was feared there would be barely enough water under the most favorable conditions. Four tugs, two ahead and two astern, kept the vessel in mid channel, but in spite of this she loughed bottom and stuck fast.

The steamship Imperator, when she goes into commission, with the start of her maiden voyage to New York.

Delicious Saratoga Chips made with

Cottolene

Saratoga Chips made with Cottolene are never greasy, as are those made with lard. The reason for this is that Cottolene heats to about 100 degrees higher than either butter or lard, without burning, quickly forming a crisp coating which excludes the fat. Your chips, therefore, are crisp, dry and appetizing.

Cottolene costs about the price of lard, and will go one-third farther than either butter or lard.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk—always in air-tight tin pails, which protect it from dirt, dust and odors. It is always uniform and dependable.

May 23, will for a time, be the largest vessel sailing. Her keel was laid two years ago. She is 300 feet in length, or almost double that of Germany's largest warship. Her other dimensions are 36 feet beam and 22 feet depth.

Reports have been printed that Emperor William would be among a party of distinguished Germans who would accompany the trial board on the first trip.

Trip "Interrupted by East Wind." New York, April 22.—A dispatch received at the Hamburg American Line offices this morning said that the Imperator's trip down the Elbe had been interrupted on account of east wind and low water, resulting in her being grounded. The trip would be resumed this afternoon, the dispatch added.

NOT FIGHT FOR COLLECTORSHIP

Hampshire and Maine delegations, have not lined up as yet, but their recommendations will probably be made in the near future, and the chances are that before long Mr. McAdoo will make his decision. It is said that C. W. Davis, publisher of the Waterville Sentinel of Waterville, Me., will have the solid backing of the Maine Democrats for the office.

It is also said that politicians of Maine have declared that if a Maine candidate is appointed the office will be transferred from this city to Portland. There is also a great speculation as to whether the new collector will maintain the present employees in the service or will displace them by his favorites.

Dr. H. H. Crossman of Lisbon is the present collector. George A. Wood, Justin H. Shaw, A. L. Young, George A. Leavitt, J. S. Brownell and W. F. Mansfield are employed as deputy collectors in the local office. Other deputy and district collectors are O. L. Stearns of Manchester, L. B. Heald of Littleton, H. C. Gibson of Bangor, Me., and N. C. McConland of Orono, Me. The stamp collectors are A. L. T. Cummings of Portland, Me., G. H. Kearns of Manchester, and W. C. Belknap of Belknap Falls, Vt. W. H. Martin is manager and A. R. Tibbitts is storekeeper. Those employees work from the Portsmouth office, which has jurisdiction over Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont. Their salaries range from $300 to $1800 a year and are fixed by the commission or at Washington, usually upon the recommendation of the collector.

The salary of the collector is $4500 a year. The salary is based upon the amount of collections, and now that the income tax is assured, the collections practically demand that amount of money. The law of the internal revenue department prescribes that the salary of the collector will not exceed $1500 and certain districts in which the collections do not exceed $1,000,000 are so arranged that all salaries are based upon the amount collected.

ALLIES AGREE ON PEACE

Constantinople, April 22.—The Greeks and the Servians today concluded an agreement with Turkey similar to that made between Bulgaria and Turkey by the terms of which hostilities are to be suspended for ten days. The Greek and Turkish Governments also have agreed to begin the repatriation of Turkish prisoners of war. The first batch of 5000 has been sent to the Turkish seaport of Messina in Asia Minor. The agreement stipulates that the men must not take part in further military operations and that the Greek transports must not be molested by Turkish war ships. Vessels have been placed at the disposal of the Turkish Government by Greece for the conveyance of three thousand Mussulmans who desire to emigrate from Salonica to Scutari in Asia Minor.

MONTENEGRO WHOLLY ISOLATED

Government Has Checked All Communication with the Outside World—Shutting Off Scutari News. London, April 22.—The Cettinje correspondent by indirect route, telegraphs that the Montenegrin Government has stopped all communication between Montenegro and the outside world. The mails have suspended and no telegrams are being accepted. It is believed that the decree of isolation is connected with negotiations for the surrender of Scutari.
